back and forth, most of it [redacted] *Due to want more files being fully re-
possible* on the assignment of clerical EOD's ~~to~~ to Clerical Induction Training. AE standards are, in fact, having a very beneficial influence on the selection-out of trainees. This is true, even tho the standard-indicators have not been "bought" by O/Bers. The average caliber of students in the classes, & their ability to learn, is <sup>slightly, but definitely</sup> higher than ever before.
